Following the publication of the Original Article, the author reported an error in the Methods section. The authors wrote "...containing [13 C,2H3]-Pentoxifylline, 250 nM (Alsachim, Illkirch Graffenstaden, France)."

The correct concentration was 50 nM, so it should read "...containing [13 C,2H3]-Pentoxifylline, 50 nM (Alsachim, Illkirch Graffenstaden, France)."

The error has no consequence on the results or interpretations.

The Original Article has been corrected.
